

Essay 2 : Personalities

We watched a video which has a quote says that “Tell me and I will forget. Show me and I will remember”. I found that obviously true in all kinds of situation. Just like when we study, if the teacher teaches only theories without letting us practice, we will probably forget by the time we walk out of the school’s door. In other words, what they mean is practicing what you have learnt is the quickest and easiest way to gain the knowledge.

The teacher told us to do the personality test which I found really interesting since I have always been curious what exactly type of person I am. There’s a website called 16 personalities which allows you to get a 'freakishly accurate' description of who you are and why you do things the way you do. Here’s my result after doing the test :

- PERSONALITY: INFP ("THE MEDIATOR")
- VARIANT: TURBULENT
- ROLE: DIPLOMAT
- STRATEGY: CONSTANT IMPROVEMENT
- 45% Introverted
- 17% Intuitive
- 17% Feeling
- 12% Prospecting
- 76% Turbulent

The result really satisfied me because of its accuracy. It says that I’m open-minded and flexible, also very creative and hard-working but too idealistic, altruistic and difficult to get to know. It’s true due to the fact that I’m only open-up to the people I have a certain belief on. I mostly listen people’s stories but it's difficult to share mine because I am private and self-conscious, I always wonder if this person is really honest or not. Thanks to the test, I just discovered that I am a true idealists since I always look for the hint of good in even the worst of people and events, searching for ways to make things better.
